Potluck/Fellowship Meal Guidelines

Potluck: "A meal, especially for a large group, to which participants bring various foods to be shared."

Goals: Reduce workload on individuals in kitchen, Honor the Sabbath, Kitchen workers not to miss Sabbath School or the worship service.

Guidelines

- Multiple Kitchen Teams that rotate so each team works only once a month
- All Food brought should be ready to eat or serve.
Examples: salads already made, watermelon cut, bread ready, ---all food cut and ready to serve.
- No food is cooked Sabbath morning at the church (warmed only)
- If you're bringing food that needs to stay warm, bring it in a dish that can go into the oven (and not have to be transferred to another dish).
- Fill out a card identifying your dish (cards available in kitchen)
- Only those authorized to be in kitchen during serving time
- Personal serving dishes not washed by kitchen crew and preferably taken home to be washed

We look forward to resuming our fellowship meals and enjoying this time together. All are encouraged to bring food and participate in this wonderful time of good food and Christian fellowship.
